

[illegible]

Name: _____

SW Story

The Golden Feather

One sunny morning, Swan stretched his long neck and flapped his wings. Today was the perfect day for an adventure! He decided to explore the swamp, where he had heard tales of the never seen before, golden swan.

As he stepped into the swamp, a buzzing swarm of bees flew past him, searching for flowers.

Swan watched as a gentle breeze made the leaves swirl in the air.

Just then, he spotted a shiny object buried under some mud. With a mighty swoop, he grabbed it in his beak.

Before he could look at his find, Swallow flew by. "Oh, Swan! That looks interesting! But first, let's go for a swim!" Swan agreed, and together they swam in the cool water.

After their swim, they took a swig of fresh river water.

Swan showed Swallow what she had found —it was a sparkling golden feather! "This must belong to the legendary Golden Swan!" Swan exclaimed.

As they admired the feather, the wind made the reeds sway gently. "Maybe we should swap it for some delicious treats," Swallow suggested.

Suddenly, a gust of wind blew through, making the nearby flowers swish and causing fallen leaves to sweep across the ground. Swan thought for a moment and said, "I think I'll keep it to remind me to keep looking for the golden swan!"

With a happy swivel of his head, Swan tucked the golden feather safely under his wing, and kept on looking for the golden swan.

1. Has anyone ever seen the Golden Swan?

Yes

No

2. Where did Swan find the Golden feather?

_____

3. Was Swan afraid of the swarm of bees?

Yes

No

4. If you drink a swig of water how much water do you drink? *hint* it is only a little bit.

SW Poem

Swan's Swirly Sweater

| SW Poem                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Rhyming Words    | SP Words               |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------|------------------------|
| Swiftly Swan, so sweet and spry,Swished his wings as he soared the sky.He swooped down near the swampy shore,Spotted something—what a score! A swirly sweater, snug and bright,Swallowed up in swampy night.He slipped it on, but—oh dear me!It was made for a squirrel, not Swan, you see! So he stretched and swayed, he shook and spun,Sweater swinging—what good fun!Swishing this way, sweeping that,Swan looked silly—fancy that! Swamp frogs giggled, swallows cheered,Swan, in swirls, looked quite weird.But did he care? Not one bit!He strutted off—he looked quite fit! | Spry, sky | SwanSwirly |

1. Swan's sweater is much too small. Have you ever squeezed into clothes that were too tiny to fit you from when you were younger?

Yes

No

2. Can you draw a sweater with swirls on it?

3. Can you draw a sweater with stripes on it?

SW Crossword

Swam    swamp    swarm    swirl    swoop    swallow
 swim    sway    sweep    swig    sweater

SW Wordsearch

|                                                                                     |   |   |                                                                                   |   |                                                                                     |   |                                                                                     |   |                                                                                       |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---|---|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|    | z | x | s                                                                                 | w | a                                                                                   | m | p                                                                                   | c |    |
| v                                                                                   | b | n |  | s | w                                                                                   | i | r                                                                                   | l | s                                                                                     |
| m                                                                                   | s | w | a                                                                                 | n | s                                                                                   | q | w                                                                                   | e | w                                                                                     |
| s                                                                                   | w | a | r                                                                                 | m | w                                                                                   | t |  | y | a                                                                                     |
| u                                                                                   | o | i | s                                                                                 | w | i                                                                                   | m | o                                                                                   | a | l                                                                                     |
| s                                                                                   | o | d | f                                                                                 | g | g                                                                                   | h | j                                                                                   | k | l                                                                                     |
| l                                                                                   | p | s | w                                                                                 | a | y                                                                                   | z | x                                                                                   | c | o                                                                                     |
| v                                                                                   | b | n | m                                                                                 | s | w                                                                                   | e | e                                                                                   | p | w                                                                                     |
| q                                                                                   | a | z | w                                                                                 | s |  | x | e                                                                                   | d | c                                                                                     |
|  | s | w | e                                                                                 | a | t                                                                                   | e | r                                                                                   | t |  |

swam      swamp      swarm      swirl      swoop      swallow
 swim      sway      sweep      swig      sweater